

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A lifetime solution for hip dysfunction is disclosed. Through this solution, by making use of implants already positioned in-situ without the need for removal of the same unless medically indicated, the solution minimizes that amount of implants actually used and the amount of trauma faced by the patient.